

VIKING VIRTUES

School-Wide Behavior Expectations

Expectations: Viking SWAG	All Areas	Arrival & Dismissal Bus Area	Classrooms	Hallways/Stairway Transitions	Lunchroom	Restroom
S afety First	Act calmly; avoid actions which would harm yourself, others or property; keep hands, body and objects to self.	Walk bikes; get on bus in a timely manner; stay behind the red line; keep a clear path to and from the front doors.	Keep hands and feet to yourself, and respect others' property.	Walk; maintain space between you and the person ahead of you; refrain from playing and goofing off.	Stay seated and wait for your table to be dismissed; keep hands to yourself; maintain clean areas.	Use bathroom for appropriate purposes; use health office when ill; wash hands for 15 seconds every time you use the restroom.
W ork Together Respectfully	Show consideration in words and actions to all; use polite language and appropriate tone and volume.	Use appropriate language; be kind and helpful to visitors; use voice level 1 or 2.	Have a pleasant attitude; speak in turn; honor others' opinions and answers; follow teacher's directions.	Walk on the right; keep moving in the appropriate direction; use voice level 1 or 2.	Use appropriate table manners; be patient, use appropriate language and voice level 1 or 2.	Respect the privacy of others; use voice level 0 or 1.
A ccept Responsibility	Be accountable for your words and actions; follow adult directions the first time.	Be on time; be ready for the bus no later than 4:05; keep hands to yourself.	Be prepared – bring all necessary supplies to class; be in your seat on time.	Keep hands, feet, and objects to yourself.	Refrain from saving seats; sign-out for restroom (return within four minutes); be in your seat on time; take your tray to the cart/ window.	Use, flush, wash, leave; report problems to an adult; keep restroom clean.
G uide me	Teachers will be prepared for lessons, actively monitor students, and model appropriate expectations.	Teachers will supervise groups of students at all times. Teachers will ensure that they know the location of all students.	Teachers will be prepared for class.	Teachers will enforce safety. Teachers will monitor students by being at their doors and in the hallways.	Supervisors will actively monitor students and be respectful.	Teachers will stand by the bathrooms to monitor the noise and behavior from the hallway.